CHAMPS HERE TOMORROW FOR FINAL APPEARANCE

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

All keyed for a rushing, tearing fight down the line to their third successive American League championship, the Boston Red Sox will be here tomorrow for the first three games with the Griffmen at Georgia avenue. From all * signs, Washington fans will turn out in respectable numbers to look at the only ball club in the league with half a chance of catching the Chicago White Sox.

The world's champions, a veteran organization, are loath to lose their opportunity of hauling down the fat prize accruing to the pennant winner. Manager Barry is most energetic in driving his players to the bitter end of the campaign and, like thoroughbreds, they are answering to the spur and the whip.

Meanwhile, the Griffmen are putting up a stiff contest for the right to lead the second division clubs across the finish line, and they expect to offer stubborn resistance to the Bostonians. Manager Griffith will send his best pitchers against the foe, and his strongest line-up will be used in each contest. Griff believes in giving no quarter to anybody on the diamond, least of all to those teams fighting for the championship laurels.

The champions are now on the road for the last time. They have just completed their games for the season at Shibe Fark. Leaving Washington Wednesday night, they will go to New York to continue their drive for the gonfalon. Three battles with Bill Donovan's clan at the Polo Grounds will close the week for the Red Sox, and Monday's game there will and all traveling for the year for Barry's boys.

The Red Sox have won eleven out

Barry's boys.

The Red Sox have won eleven out of fifteen games played with the Griffre this season, and, therefore, they are most confident of cleaning up the Georgia avenue lada this wees. They have won only ten out of eighteen from the Yankees, thanks to the latters of the Yankees, thanks to the latters of the Yankees and Jarry Gardner, the chambars of the Pankees is and week at Bospins won't look so bad at the plate.

ter's three victories had week at Boston, but the champions hope to reverse matters at the Fole Grounds.

Today the White Sox are favorites to win the 1917 title and oppose the Giants in the world's series. They are sailing along in fine style, but they are coming East for twelve games on the Beaboard, and will find every optons to the Beaboard. the seaboard, and will find every op- task getting into fifth place and hold-

Even Bowwows Are Off Alien Enemy Judges in Ring

Even the bowwews are off the allen enemy. The American Ken-nel Club has joined in the movement to rout him out.

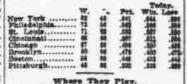

A recent rule fasued by the license committee of the parent organisation of all the dog clubs in this country decrees that only Americans or their allies, who are citizens, may now act as judges at any exhibit held under the suspleas of the A. K. C. Germans and citizens of all countries at war with the United States are under the han.

The alien enemy will not have a ghost of a show to jurk in hid-ing among the dog fanciers. It will be easy for the American Kennel Club to ferret out these undestrables, as all dog show judges and superintendents have had to be listed by the license committee of his foregoing association.
